

Scott County Board of Supervisors
November 14, 2023 8:30 a.m.

The Board of Supervisors met pursuant to adjournment with Dickson, Rawson and Beck present. Supervisor Maxwell and Supervisor Paustian were absent.

Auditor Kerri Tompkins reviewed there was a 17.4% turnout compared to the 2021 turnout of 14%. Out of 127,534 Applicable Registered voters, 22,188 cast their vote. 15% voted Absentee and 85% at the polls on Election Day, the absentee ballots were double the amount from 2021. There were 66 precincts with 311 Poll Workers on Election Day, 13 Poll Workers on the Absentee Board, 10 Poll Workers for the 4 Satellites, and 3 Poll Workers for the Post Election Audit.

Supervisor Beck asked about numbers for mail in Absentee ballots vs Early voting/Satellites.

Auditor Tompkins did not have the numbers but would get them.

Supervisor Beck wanted to see numbers to determine the need for Satellites in the future. He also asked about the Pleasant Valley Schools race.

Election Manager James Martin reviewed there were 250 Write-in votes cast for Tracy Rivera, and 256 votes for Jason Smith who was on the ballot. The other few write-ins were for miscellaneous candidates.

Auditor Tompkins reviewed there would be a second-tier canvass on Tuesday November 21, 2023 for those areas that cross over County boundaries.

Moved by Rawson, seconded by Dickson a motion approving the Canvass of Votes for the City/School election held on November 7, 2023. Roll Call: All Ayes.

Moved by Dickson, seconded by Rawson at 8:36 a.m. a motion to adjourn. All Ayes.
