

RESOLUTION

SCOTT COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

September 18, 2008

PROCLAIMING SEPTEMBER 20TH AS ALCOA DAY IN SCOTT COUNTY

WHEREAS, Alcoa provides over 2200 high-quality jobs to residents in Scott County and the entire Quad Cities; and

WHEREAS, Alcoa employees at this plant support key elements of the economy from Aerospace to Commercial Transportation and to the personal vehicles we all drive; and

WHEREAS, Alcoa is committed to protecting the environment for employees and residents of the Quad Cities; and

WHEREAS, Alcoa through its charitable contributions supports many key initiatives and events to improve the entire community; and

WHEREAS, Alcoa is recognized as one of the leading businesses in the Quad Cities.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY the Scott County Board of Supervisors as follows:

- Section 1. That the Board of Supervisors does hereby proclaim that September 20 is Alcoa Day in Scott County.
- Section 2. The Board does greatly appreciate Alcoa's presence in our community for 60 years and their strong commitment to serving our community.
- Section 3. This resolution shall take effect immediately.
