Re: Abatement of taxes and special assessments on County tax deed properties

The attached Exhibit A represents the current list of County held tax deed properties, and the amount of delinquent taxes and special assessments owed for each parcel. In accordance with County Tax Deed Policy and Iowa Code, taxes and special assessments owing against tax deed properties held by the County are abated prior to such properties being transferred or offered at public auction. County policy dictates that tax deed properties are first offered for transfer to cities and school districts as well as community based non-profit organizations for community development purposes. Remaining properties are offered at a public auction, the date of which is set by the Board following a public hearing.

In the coming weeks the Planning and Development Department will be presenting the current list of County tax deed properties to cities, school districts, and non-profits. Following a public hearing on any requests submitted by these entities, and approval of the transfer by resolution of the Board, the Board may hold a public hearing to set the date for the 2014 tax deed auction.

Staff would recommend that the Board approve a resolution abating the taxes and special assessments in accordance with County policy and Iowa Code.
