RE: Samuel Huff

We have selected a candidate to fill the open position of Assistant County Attorney. There were Thirty five applicants, four were interviewed.

The candidate chosen is Samuel Huff. He has experience as an Assistant County Attorney in Wapello County, Iowa. He has prosecuted all types of cases in Wapello County and performed all the duties required of an Assistant County Attorney. We are especially impressed with his experience prosecuting crimes against women and children, including domestic assault, sexual abuse and stalking. His training and experience in these crimes will be a real asset to this office. His non-legal job history with the Iowa Department of Inspection and Appeals and Department of Social Services is also beneficial. This experience makes him the best applicant to fill the position in our office created by the resignation of Noah Poppelreiter.

Because of our case load, it is important that Sam be able to immediately cover the duties and responsibilities of an Assistant County Attorney.

I am requesting that we hire Sam at an annual salary $68,000 which is above starting point, but below mid-point. This salary is within the amount currently budgeted for this position.

I believe this salary is reasonable and necessary to attract and retain capable attorneys to be prosecutors for the citizens of Scott County.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Michael J. Walton".

Michael J. Walton
Scott County Attorney
