RECOGNIZING ESSENTIAL WORKERS

WHEREAS, the outbreak of COVID-19 led to a state of unprecedented disruption in the United States, in Iowa and in Scott County; and

WHEREAS, essential workers include those who conducted a wide range of operations and services required to continue critical infrastructure operations, operations that include a large umbrella of sectors from health care to energy to defense to agriculture and everyday needs such as post offices, grocery stores, food processing, social services, law enforcement, emergency services, etc.; and

WHEREAS, the widespread implementation of stay-at-home measures and restrictions on many categories of businesses produced a surge in demand for delivery services, with its effects felt at every link in the supply chain; and

WHEREAS, essential workers kept the critical parts of our economy and community running during the fight against COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, while many of us were asked to stay home, these workers responded to continue operations potentially putting their lives in danger; and

WHEREAS, many of these workers were at risk of contracting the virus because their essential work meant they could not stay at home; and
