

Information received on July 25, 1975 from Homer J. McConnell, 2737 Woodley Place, N., Washington D.C. 20008.

"Vandals stole every one of the five little stones and completely destroyed the main stone that had my grandfather's name and grandmother's names on it when I first say it as a young lad of 17 in 1922...."

"Since your information is correct through George Archibald, I will just add the names of those you do not have. All were buried in the same lot in Jacks Cemetery.

William Wilberforce B. April 24, 1864 and D. September 3, 1865

Joseph B. October 28, 1866 and D. May 24, 1867

Edwin B. April 16, 1873 and D. August 16, 1873."
